

a

Institute of Social Anthropology.

11 Kettle Road. Oxford.

12 Feb. 1965.

My dear Mr Brokensha,

It is sweet & kind of you to make a contribution to the Scholarship in memory of Yoma. I thought my grief could pass in the years; but it is not so. I am afraid that I still weep.

All the children are well and, I think, happy. You do come and see us when you are next in England.

You are lucky in having such a great man as David to care for you. He is one of the best men I have ever known - but don't tell him so.

I do really much appreciate your kindness

Yours most sincerely

E.E. Evans-Fritchland.

P.S. Please tell David that the fund has now reached £2,000 & the Ghana Government has promised to add another £1,000. I think we will reach £10,000.

OUMA'S COPY OF E-P'S letter